Dedication

The short history of Austin Prep is the story of zeal, foresight, work, and determination of its administrators, students, and educators. They have already established a tradition which is so much a part of Austin that it is too often taken for granted. One such dedicated priest, Augustinian, and teacher, who has served Austin and its interests with devotion and loyalty since its beginning, is Rev. Edward J. Chapman, O.S.A.

At Austin Father Chapman has served in the capacity of Vice Rector, Disciplinarian, Student Counselor, and Director of Studies. Through his unceasing efforts and devotion to duty, he has been an inspiration to the more than 1500 students who have come under his guidance and direction.

With a deep sense of pride in him and his accomplishments, we, the members of the 1960 MAGISTRO staff, enscribe this edition of the yearbook to this dedicated Augustinian, priest, friend, and teacher, Rev. Edward J. Chapman, O.S.A.

YEARBOOK THEME – The dedicated teaching FACULTY. . . of Austin consists of Augustinian priests and Catholic laymen who are devoted to the tasks of giving example, counsel, guidance, instruction, and inspiration, by striving to train their STUDENTS. . . in heart and mind, and soul, before God and men, so that their education has a quality which technique alone could not impart, and through the LITURGY. . . by the spiritual formation of the individual, in a Catholic atmosphere, in the religious program of training, the sacramental life of grace of the Church, and through the field of STUDIES. . . in the work of training the mind, by the acquisition of necessary and useful knowledge as a preparation for higher education, in the recognition of effort and achievement, as well as in ATHLETICS. . . which balance the development of the mind with healthy exercise and recreation through competitive sports, intramural games, and physical instruction, in sportsmanship and team work with the desire to excel, as also through ACTIVITIES. . . which by their social nature and extra curricular events round out the personality and help to form the balanced individual.

The legend of the seal of Austin Catholic Preparatory School is as follows: The bishop's mitre attests to the episcopal dignity of St. Augustine, the school's patron. The Latin words Tolle, Lege (take up and read), in the upper half of the shield, commemorate the incident in the life of St. Augustine which inspired him to take up the New Testament and to read the passage from sacred scripture which was instrumental in his conversion. The heraldic swan in the left side of the bottom half of the shield is taken from the coat of arms of the Earl of Essex, under whose auspicies the Augustinians flourished in England on their arrival in 1250, and where they were called Austin Friars. The emblematic lily in the right hand side of the bottom half of the shield represents Mary Immaculate, whose devotion and patronage have been associated with the Augustinians from their beginning in 388. The name of the school and the date of its founding complete the inscription in the scroll around the seal.

The name of the yearbook is Magistro. It is taken from the title of one of St. Augustine's writings. In the year 389 A.D. Augustine composed his pedagogical treatise De Magistro. This is a dialogue between himself and his son, Adeodatus, who, though only fifteen years old, was a youth of extraordinary powers. In this literary work the father and son direct their attention to the question of the extent to which one can learn from a teacher. The main thought of the treatise is that man refers all that he understands to the inner truth of right reason which is implanted in his mind. The teacher, therefore, only exhorts the learner to make that consultation. Learning does not come through the words which sound outwardly on the ear but through the Truth which enlightens us inwardly in our minds.

Rev. Father Henry Mathusch, O.S.O. Magistro Moderator.

The Rector's Message

The Reverend John F. Galloway, O.S.A.
Rector of Austin Catholic Preparatory School

Once again it is my privilege to address a short message to you, the graduating class of 1960. It is a privilege mingled with joy and sadness. Joy, shared with you at the successful completion of the second phase of your education; sadness, at the thought of losing men whom I have come to know and respect over the course of four years.

Oftentimes, graduation is looked upon as a release from further obligation to the school, but such is not the case. I think, perhaps, your responsibility is greater. You carry with you the reputation of Austin which you must preserve for those whom you leave behind. No matter what you do, whether you go on to college, to work, or to the Armed Services, you must always strive to uphold and to live the principles that your teachers and parents have endeavored to instill into you. In so doing, you will add luster to your school's good name and you and all who come after you will shine in its reflected glory.

I think I can give you no better advice as you leave Austin than that given by a Naval Captain in writing home to his small son during the last war, "Be a good Catholic, son, and you can't help but be a good American."

God bless and keep all of you close to His Sacred Heart.

September 20, 1959

The Friars stumbled to a deadlock with the Wildcats in the opener. Half-back Jerry Pillars scored in the first quarter on a pass from Quarterback Paul Zosel. Steve "Duke" Mass prevented the extra point attempt.

Austin 27 vs Salesian 6

Austin 71 vs Mendel 77
November 28, 1959

For the second straight year the Monarchs pulled their game with the fighting Friars out of the fire in the last half. The windy city crew overcame a seven point deficit at halftime with a press and the services of Tom Stallings who scored forty-one points. With that boy and two of our starters fouled out the Austin fight was not enough. With five starters of the Black and White in double figures Friar fans looked eagerly to Central Division play.

Austin 63 vs Catholic Central 53
December 4, 1959

With a fine team effort the Black and White pulled to an amazing 19 point lead at halftime over the never-say-die Shamrocks. Lose play narrowed this gap in the second half, but four Friars finished in double figures. Austin was especially strong on the boards taking 39 rebounds to 10.

Austin 62 vs Notre Dame 60
December 11, 1959

In a very hard fought game the team that will never beat us almost did. The Black and White had to go all out as an inspired Irish team refused to crack. The Green and Gold charged out from a 37-30 halftime deficit to tie the score. Guards Bill Hodgeman and Walt Connolly both turned in fine performances, as Bill hit for 19 and Walt 13 besides the winning bucket with less than a minute left.

Austin 62 vs U of D 48
December 18, 1959

After a slow 1st quarter the fighting Friars hustled to a 10 point lead at halftime. Again Austin had four starters in double figures lead by Bob Brinkman with 18. Thus fell the Cubs, the pre-season co-favorite in the Central Division, becoming number 41 in the Black and White five-year unbeaten streak.

Austin 65 vs Cathedral Central 42
January 5, 1960

Against the Wildcats in the showdown game for the league lead the Black and White shot to a 35-19 halftime bulge. Fitzgerald was high scorer with 19 points, followed by Hodgeman and Connolly. The victory was the biggest defeat ever handed to Cathedral by the Friars on the former's court.

Austin 80 vs St. Joseph 33
January 8, 1960

The game against the Bluejays was strickly no contest. The Black and White led 54-9 at the half with the starters playing only the first quarter. Bill Hodgeman with 13 points led 13 of the 15 squad members into the scoring column.

Austin 59 vs De LaSalle 41
January 15, 1960

The Friar five steamrolled a hustling Pilot squad with a superior rebounding effort. Walt Connolly was the Black and White's high scorer this time with 17 points. On a foreign court the Pilots were not able to offer the Frairs the usual close game of past years.

Austin 69 vs Salesian 42
January 22, 1960

After a tight first quarter the fighting Friars widened their gap at the half to 34-21. The Red Knights tried a stall in the third period, but found Willie Hodgman wasn't as handicapped as the Knights hoped. Bill scored nine of his fifteen points during that period.

Austin 57 vs Catholic Central 62
January 26, 1960

A great era at Austin Prep may or may not be at an end but one thing for sure, the incredible Friar cage streak is now history. The Shamrocks succeeded in doing what no other league has ever done – defeat the Black and White. The boys in Green caught Austin on an off-nite offensively and defensively. After five years and 45 straight games a slip came.

Austin 86 vs Notre Dame 69
January 29, 1960

The fighting Friars turned in their best offensive game of the season to smother all upset hopes of arch-rival Notre Dame. The Irish managed to stay close for two quarters with the score at the half, 44-40. All five Black and White starters scored in double figures. The amazing red-head again led all scorers with 23 points. The 22 game undefeated home streak in league play was preserved.

Austin 63 vs U of D 53
February 2, 1960

In a foul marked game the Black and White managed to overcome a poor shooting night and hold the Cubs at arms reach. This game all but clinched the Friars fifth straight Central Division Championship. A referee's protest was delivered to U of D for unsportsmanship conduct.

Austin 79 vs Cathedral Central 52
February 5, 1960

The Friars coasted to a 47-36 halftime lead. A good shooting night offset a poor defensive effort against the Wildcats. Bill Fitzgerald was high for Austin with 24 points.

Austin 74 vs St. Joseph 61
February 9, 1960

In a fine demonstration of true sportsmanship, Mr. Holloay freely substituted from the first quarter on. Preble and Hynous were high for the fighting Friars with 18 and 16 respectively; thus showing what the Friars have in store for the league next year.

Catholic Tournament at U of D Memorial Building 1960

Austin 94 vs St. Gabrials 4(
February 14, 1960

Four Black and White starters hit in double figures. After staying with the Friars for one quarter the trumpheters seemed to give up completely. The fighting Friars set a new school record as well as a Catholic Tournament record.

Austin 82 vs Servite 73
February 17, 1960

In perhaps the finest game of the year the Black and White managed to beat the finest Panther team in their history with a 45% shooting average from the floor. A hustling Servite team kept the Friars pressed all the way. Four starters hit for double figures to crack the Panthers unbeaten streak at 15 games.

Austin 60 vs Holy Redeemer 61
February 21, 1960

The bubble burst on the Black and White in the Catholic final. On that night both foul-shooting and field goal shooting were sub-par. An inspired team hung on to the very end against the biggest team in the state.

City Consolation Final of the Metropolitan City Tournament 1960

Austin 60 vs Northwestern 62
February 26, 1960

After taking a seven point lead at intermission the Friars hit a cold streak of shooting and luck. The Colts took full advantage of this opportunity to defeat the mighty Black and White. Going into the fourth quarter with a 52-47 lead the Friars were out-scored 15-8.

Austin 83 vs De LaSalle 50
March 4, 1960

The Purple and Gold showed promise for the future when juniors and reserves were used most of the game. After taking a slow 15-14 lead the Black and White took complete charge and the inexperienced Pilots were run off the floor. The Friar bench played most of the second half.

Austin 64 vs Mt. Clemens 56
March 8, 1960

In the first game of the regional bracket against the Bath City five Black and White seemed to play a listless game. An inspired effort at the free throw line staved off defeat. All-Catholic guard Walt Connolly lead a balanced Friar attack with 22; Bill Fitzgerald followed with 17 points.

Austin 55 vs Roseville 44
March 11, 1960

An aroused team and student body captured the third regional crown in four years by out-fighting the taller and heavier Wildcats. The Black and White shot to an early 20-9 lead and were never headed. Walt Connolly and Bill Fitzgerald, Austin's two All-Staters, were again high men for the Friars.

Austin 47 vs Highland Park 45
March 16, 1960

The fabulous Friars overcame a slow start to edge the Polar Bears on two free throws in the last 6 seconds. The Black and White qualified for the semi-finals at Lansing for the third time in four years. If ever a game was won by spirit the Parker game was, and through this tremendous support Austin triumphed.

Austin 59 vs Pontiac Central 66
March 18, 1960

In what was labeled as the hardest fought game of the tournament the never-say-die Friars forced the mighty Chiefs into overtime. A lack of rebounding strength was the major factor in the defeat. Tremendous out-court shooting heroics forged a 33-33 halftime score and a 59-59 score to force the overtime play. A tribute to coaching, spirit and hustle must be payed to the "Basketball King of the East Side" . . . Austin Prep.

Class A District Bracket at East Detroit

Austin 83 vs Port Huron 75
March 1, 1960

The Big Red were hot but didn't have enough class to overcome a loose defensive game on the part of the Black and White. Balanced scoring again placed a red hot Friar offense that buried the Hurons. Paul Zosel was high scorer with 24 points in his best game of the campaign.

By George E. Van
Austin and its student body of 650 that makes up the East Side school's new-famous White Shirt Legion, is going back to the big one, the State High School Basketball semi-finals at East Lansing.
Together they comprise the most spectacular, and well regulated, prep show playing in the annual tournament.
When those 650 let loose a cheer in perfect cadence, or smack their palms in clapping rhythm, brother you tingle.
If you don't you're dead emotionally.
AUSTIN CAME through the quarter-final round last night at U. of D. before an in-and-out crowd of 9,000 by taking a rousing game from High-land Park, 47-45, in the last seconds.

Austin team members enjoy a brief rest period before the starter's gun signals the beginning of another event in the swimming meet. A few jokes among the swimmers relieve the tension.

The Friar swimmers posted eight wins against one loss to perennial powerhouse Visitation on February 26, 62-30. In the opening meet of the year the Black and White stomped the Pilots by a score of 61-35, slamming almost every event. Salesian met a 60-36 dunking at the hands of the Friars. On January 22 the Black and White journeyed to St. Mary of Redford where Coach Giovannucci sent the reserves into a 59-29 win. The next victim of the Austin swimmers was the Cubs of U. of D. 54-42. Austin tested its aquatic supremacy on February 5 as the fighting Friars stormed into Lincoln High and smashed nine pool records in a score of 66-30. For the second time the measure of a much improved LaSalle team was taken 56-41.

Jubilent members of Austin's swimming team look on as Marty Burke captures another first place for the Friars in the medley relay.

The Friars finished third in the Catholic City Finals behind the Sailors of Visitation and the Cubs of U. of D. One of Austin's greatest swimmers is Don Diebel who made an outstanding show by breaking two city records: the 200 and 100 yard freestyle. Both the medley and freestyle relay teams were edged; Mike White captured a third in the 50 yard freestyle; Roger LaRose took a fourth in the 100 yard butterfly, while Jim Schulte and Tom Kahn held fourth and sixth, respectively, in the 200 freestyle. Ted Bonneau also took a third in the 100 yard freestyle.

Graduating seniors, Co-captains Marty Burke and Don Diebel, with Jim Nelson, Tom Kahn and Ted Bidigare spearheaded a team with a very promising future. Such swimmers as White, Bonneau, LaRose, Walters, Foley and Schulte and the hard-working freshmen, Cleary, Fitzsimons, Alandt, Unti, Vorhees, Petz and Wilson will insure continued strength for perennial powerhouse Austin. The Black and White has been the only Catholic team in eight years to dethrone the Sailors, although they have fallen short by three points on two occasions. Next year's squad may return with a city championship for the second time. In order to maintain this fine tradition continued student interest and support are needed. Swimming at Austin has enjoyed success that all Friars can look on with pride.

This record has been due in no small degree to the fine coaching and hard work of Mr. Giovannucci. Austin was lucky to have the services of "Mr. G" in one of Austin's most successful sports. Fr. Maibusch was the moderator of this year's team.
